

Nick Hern Books Collection

The Nick Hern Books Collection includes over 625 plays from many of the UK and Ireland's preeminent playwrights, as well as exciting new voices.

It offers a wide and varied range of award-winning and widely studied plays, and is continually updated with new works fresh from leading theatres.

The collection includes ...

■ This collection features authors such as::

| | |
|---------------------|-----------------|
| Mike Bartlett | Lucy Kirkwood |
| Howard Brenton | Liz Lochhead |
| Jez Butterworth | Conor McPherson |
| Caryl Churchill | Rona Munro |
| David Edgar | Nina Raine |
| Helen Edmundson | Jack Thorne |
| Vivienne Franzmann | Enda Walsh |
| debbie tucker green | Ella Hickson |

■ Highlights include:

Caryl Churchill: Over 40 plays by one of our greatest living writers, which blend stunning formal innovation with a clear-eyed, unflinching look at the world around us – including Escaped Alone (2016), Far Away (2000), and A Number (2002).

Top contemporary Irish playwrighting: Includes strikingly original works by Enda Walsh such as Disco Pigs, Misterman and Ballyturk, and uncanny, heartfelt plays by Conor McPherson (“quite possibly the finest playwright of his generation” New York Times) including The Weir, The Seafarer, and The Night Alive.

The Terence Rattigan collection: 16 plays by one of the twentieth-century's leading dramatists, including devastating masterpiece The Deep Blue Sea, legal and family drama The Winslow Boy, and one-act play The Browning Version, twice adapted for film.

NHB Drama Classics: includes foreign works in translation from Nikolai Gogol, Alfred Jarry, Molière, and more.